

The 4th JERASS-ISSA International Forum Social Studies Education in the Time of the Pandemic

We hope to share the elements of curricula, lesson plans, or description of lessons, or research method that reflect new experiences of teaching social studies or social studies methods courses or social studies education research during the Covid-19 pandemic in Asia.

The Presenter would report the social situation, environment around education, social studies education and practice under/with Covid-19 in his/her nation.

Date and Time : October 24th , 2021, (Sun.) 1:30pm- 3:30pm (KST, JST)

Cases and Presenters:

Republic of Korea:

Prof. Dr. Nam Ho-Yeop (The Seoul National University of Education)

Ms. Lee Ji-hye (Midong Elementary School in Seoul)

Republic of the Philippines:

Ms. Sheridan Matias Reyes

(Jose V. Palma Senior High School in Quezon)

Republic of Malawi:

Ms. Judith Likishoni (Chiradzulu Secondary School)

Moderator: Prof. Susumu Oshihara (Ehime University, Japan)

Language: Korean (In Case of Korea),

English(In Cases of both the Philippines and Malawi)

Host: Japanese Educational Research Association for The Social Studies (JERASS)

Co-Host: International Social Studies Association(ISSA)

On-line Meeting (Zoom MTG)

Contact:

Forms: October 15th (Fri.) deadline
https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdJXnAgJI_QnZneas9pHR82S-nrtqrIOyNx1xBw6X-KFWfebA/viewform

Susumu Oshihara can be reached at oshihara.susumu.mj@ehime-u.ac.jp